SACRAO NEWSLETTER

In this edition you will find highlights from the 2017 SACRAO annual meeting and conference, communication briefs from the Executive Council, reflections from our SROC colleagues and scholarship winners, and lots of photos from the conference in St. Pete.

SACRAO provides numerous opportunities for higher education professionals to share expertise and network with colleagues serving at institutions in our region and around the globe.

Together we can share our challenges and celebrations as we navigate the landscape of higher education.

We hope you enjoy the Spring 2017 SACRAO newsletter.
