

Multicultural/Emerging Leader Annual Meeting Scholarship

The scholarship is designated for emerging leaders in the admissions and records profession, as well as professionals from under-represented populations in the SACRAO region who show promise for advancing multicultural participation and activities or who are seen as emerging leaders within their state organization and within SACRAO.

Recognition will be based on many factors, including the following:

- Professional success at the institutional level
- Professional involvement at the state level
- Participation in multicultural activities and programs (not required but helpful)
- Promise for further participation in the activities of SACRAO

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS:

- An application may be completed by the individual, the AACRAO State President, the designated Professional Access and Equity representative of the state/regional association or a member of SACRAO.
- Nominees must be from SACRAO member institutions who are current in their payment of dues.
- Complete this application in its entirety. Consideration will only be given to applicants with completed applications. Selections for awards will be based solely on the information provided on this application.
- If additional space is needed to complete the application, please type or print on a separate page and reference the appropriate question or section to which you are responding.
- Please return completed applications to:
Sheryl Gray, University Registrar, Carson-Newman University
SACRAO Vice President for Communication and Recognition

Please email the form in PDF format to sgray@cn.edu
